1. Drop unnamed: 0 column from the dataset.

2. Count the the number of people in different job profiles.

3. How many people are doing service?

4. Find the number of people having minus balance in their account.

5. Find the number of people deposit money to their bank who are from management profile.

6. Find the percentage of each contact method among the group of people.

7. Find the number of unmarried students who don't deposit money to their bank.

8. Find the number of calls through unknown contact method in the month of may.

9. Find the number of unemployed married people who have taken loan.

10. Find the top five largest amount of balance in the accounts of the people.